

As a licensed ham operator, I am very much opposed to "BPL" because it would generate so much interference with radio waves that only the very strongest signals would come through, effectively damaging amateur radio which is essential to national defence and disaster assistance. Commercial interests should not govern this issue, which is not really in the Peoples interest.